From

This is the first monthly news letter from www.guitarlessonshouston.com

I will be sending these in hopes of helping current, former students and new inquiries gain more from their practicing and playing.

The articles will contain tips from myself and other musicians and teachers on how to get the most out of your playing and practicing.

Also included will be links and articles to up-coming music acts and venues that I think you might find interesting.

Hope you find the information helpful
